Pizza

Now this is the jewel in the crown. Our unique selling proposition – the very authentic Indian pizza is something we take great pride in. This is our specialty at “The Pizza Cafe”. Our pizza recipes are like closely guarded secret that are not shared with anyone. Each pizza on our menu is special and made using Indian condiments and ingredients.

We know it very well that pizza originally belongs to Italy which is now a very popular dish world over. Italians love their pizza served in thin crust with loads of cheese, tomato sauce and olives. They prefer freshly baked bases made from proper brick pizza oven in order to restore the taste and crust of the pizza base.

At our café, we have borrowed the concept and the process to an extent to create a very Indian flavor. Our pizzas too are baked freshly and served with oodles of cheese but the twist lies in the toppings. These can be anything from paneer (cottage cheese), potatoes, onion, capsicum, corn, vegetable cutlets to peas and tomatoes.

In fact, if there is a special combination our guests demand, our chefs try to create those in the kitchen too. The dish is then named after the person who presented the idea to us. Now, this is not a regular feature to be spotted anywhere.

Starters

A good meal begins with a starter. At least that’s what we believe in and following this belief, we have carefully designed our range of starters to tantalize your taste buds. There is a wide range of finger licking stuff to select from.

For starters play an important role; they set the stage for the main meal. They fill you just enough so that waiting for the real deal is not so frustrating. It’s like a nice way to start the journey before landing to the destination. So, we have some really nice varieties of starters to choose from.

Here is the list that will want you to dig in right away:

- The very famous french fries with Indian dips
- Potato wedges
- Vegetable rolls and patties
- Onion rings deep fried served with chutney
- Cheese delight
- Pasta made in Indian style
- Baked pasta and macaroni
- Pakodas (especially during monsoons)
- Garlic bread
- Exotic bread served with vegetables

The list is endless and will leave you confused. Looking at the variety and taste, you will want to order all of it at one go.

These starters also come with special combo meal options where one can pick and choose the one they want. In fact for those looking only to enjoy a cola with some light snack, we suggest you try our starters.

Sandwiches

It is one of the most popular dishes in British and is named after the 4th Earl of Sandwich, John Montagu. Yes, we are talking about the sandwich which is a portable food item, very popular in the western world and is now a most preferred food item across the globe. Interestingly, this dish was perceived to be eaten by menfolk during gambling and drinking hours late in the night but slowly became popular.

And India is not left behind. Sandwiches rule the roost. This is regarded as a simple dish wherein between two slices of bread, one can fill in anything to make it an instant meal. We too remain a huge fan of this super simple meal and have Indianized it.

Today, one will find a sandwich food stall in every nook and corner and we definitely wanted to break from the clutter. At 'The Pizza Cafe', we have developed some wonderful sandwich combinations that are pleasing to the eye and apt to tackle the hunger pangs.

Our sandwiches are served with cheese, crispy vegetables, french fries or chips along with super cool cola. You can ask for iced tea or cold coffee too. There is a specially designed mini meal too which is filling and best enjoyed with friends and family.

Burger

When we even hear the word burger, a very nice meal image comes in front of the eyes. Two large buns with a patty along with tomatoes and dressings sandwiched between them. This is one meal each of us relishes to one's heart content. It's as good as a full meal and we at "The Pizza Cafe" just made this exciting meal all the more loaded.

Yes, now get more from your burger. This humble yet filling dish that finds its root in United States and Germany is a hugely popular food item. Though the origin of burger still remains a very controversial subject with several claiming to invent it, we have included burger in our menu with a very Indian feel and taste.

Our burgers are loaded with cheese, crispy patty, salad dressing and fresh tomatoes and giving company to this yummy meal is a dose of french fries, cola and fresh salad. The buns used are made from wheat dough and the patty is air fired to maintain its health quotient.

The exciting part of our burgers is that one can pick and choose from the variety of patties and fillings and create your own standardized one. There is a set of menus too if you need to grab one fast and rush to work or college.

Frankies

This is one dish that is originally from Mumbai, Maharashtra. Frankie is a fast food that is more like a makeover of the rolls served in Kolkata. A nice naan or flatbread made from wheat or other grains is rolled in with vegetables, salad, sauce and patty. It's one of the best portable food stuffs to carry to work, picnics, school lunch box and casual outings.

Frankie is perhaps one of the most consumed food stuffs by many especially youngsters and office goers. Call it a light snack or meal; this is one healthy food item to indulge in and when you come to "The Pizza Cafe", check out our amazing range of frankies served with nice cola or a mini desert. Select from a wide variety of paneer, potatoes, peas and carrot patties and club it with wedges or fries to make your own meal.

And if you are planning an outing or travelling by road, get them packed and take it along. This will help in dealing with small hunger pangs or cravings. Especially during monsoons when one feels the need to have something nice, warm and filling, then our frankie range is just apt thing to order.

Garlic Bread

Have it as a starter or just enjoy it with a nice cold beverage, garlic bread has its share of loyal eaters. It's like a must have before digging into your favorite Pizza. Originally from US, garlic bread was ruling the menu since 1947 in most restaurants there and India is not untouched with this food phenomenon. In almost every fast food outlet, one will find varieties of garlic bread served.

Our cafe outlet has successfully tried to transform this very western dish in an Indian form. Sticking to the basics, baguette is used in making this dish.

Ask for the usual garlic bread made in olive oil or butter and minced garlic stuffed inside the bread slices. Served hot and freshly out of the oven, this side dish or starter sets the tone for the main meal.

Taking this a little further, we top the bread with Indian condiments and food stuff to make it a little more loaded. Fresh cheese is grated for those who ask for it. Opt for mozzarella, cheddar or feta cheese. There is Indian variety of cheese too for those who love to experiment.

Garlic bread is usually served in all combo meals be it with pizza, burger, frankie or sandwiches. If you want to order it separately, there are a lot of options in the menu.

Beverages

A nice cold drink goes well with any fast food. This makes a meal all the more relished. With our cafe themed as being very Indian, our range of beverages is made using ingredients from Indian kitchen. There are usual colas and drinks to order from branded ones to the locally manufactured. One will get a whole lot of options to order from.

And for tea lovers, we have a range of hot tea varieties and iced tea. Our specialty is ginger and honey tea and the most sipped masala tea. Since we know Indians love their tea just like the one made at home.

How can we forget chocolate based beverages? A glass of nice cold chocolate shake topped with vanilla ice cream along with oodles of chocolate chips. It's a sinful drink that refreshes and recharges one to the core.

Giving chocolate a companion is cold coffee served with a dash of chocolate flavor. A drink that pleases craving for chocolate and coffee both at one go.

Specialties of "The Pizza Cafe" are the mocktails prepared with fresh fruit pulp and Indian condiments. We suggest you try one of these and are sure to ask for more.
