Probate of Will

A Probate is an official proof of the will and is issued by the court to an individual who is named as the executor in the will. An executor is an individual who is supposed to manage the property and securities of the deceased person as mentioned in the will.

What do we do?

Our company helps clients to receive the Probate of will from the court.

- We touch base with RTA to check whether Probate is actually required or if it is enough to have the will.
- In case probate is required, our qualified lawyer applies along with the copy of will and proof of death with the High Court of the state where the deceased used to live.

- After the court is satisfied, the Probate of the Will is issued to the executor.

We are dedicated to providing legal assistance to the clients during the entire process of issuance of the Probate of Will by the court. Our professionals try to provide you with the Probate within less frame of time.

Retrieval of fixed deposit

If a fixed deposit is not claimed for ten years following its due date, it is considered unclaimed. The government doesn't care about the plight of taxpayers who invest their life savings in corporate fixed deposits (FDs). Accordingly, the Asset Retrieval Services firm helps to claim deposits that have been unclaimed.

If the account holder dies, we assist in the process of transferring the funds through a legal process so that the amount is reclaimed by the legal heirs. When an amount due is not claimed within a ten-year period, it goes unclaimed and is transferred to the Senior Citizen Welfare Fund, where of course it cannot be claimed after 25 years.
